

Banking and financial intermediation

Guillaume Vuillemeys, HEC Paris

Chapter 0: Introduction

Part I. Private contracting with depositors

Chapter 1: Liquidity creation, bank runs and deposit insurance

Chapter 2: Creation of information-insensitive debt and funding dry-ups

Part II. Private contracting with borrowers

Chapter 3: Delegated monitoring and relationship banking

Chapter 4: Information frictions in banking

Chapter 5: Industrial organization of banking

Part III. Public intervention in private contracts

Chapter 6: Credit crunches

Chapter 7: Central banks and monetary policy transmission

Chapter 8: Risk-taking and bank regulation

Part IV. Non-bank financial intermediaries

Chapter 9: Loan sales and securitization

Chapter 10: Money market funds

Chapter 11: Mutual funds and hedge funds

Chapter 12: Credit rating agencies